

Adjournment of Congress Is in Sight

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The adjournment bound 87th Congress jogged within sight of the finish line today and found three hurdles still to be cleared.

Leaders still saw a strong possibility of finishing by Saturday night. Others were less optimistic and figured the 1962 session would drag over until next week.

The three controversies in the way of adjournment are:

1. Foreign aid appropriations, a perennial subject of sharp differences between House and Senate. Conferees from the two branches sat late Thursday night and tentatively agreed on a $3,928,900,000 bill, more than $1 billion less than President Kennedy originally asked. The bill now carries $299 million more than the House allowance, but $494 million less than the Senate's. The conferees meet again today to try to settle other points.

2. The Agriculture Department money bill, for which a bitter row raged over funds to build new research facilities and over a peanut marketing research facility proposed for Dawson, Ga.

3. The long-debated bill to permit self-employed persons to set up tax-deductible pension funds. It has passed both branches but President Kennedy has given no word as to whether he will sign it. Backers could attempt to make it veto-proof by attaching it to supplemental appropriations bill or to try to override a presidential veto if Kennedy rejects the measure.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, told a reporter he was quite confident of adjournment by Saturday night.

Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma, House Democratic leader, voiced similar views but not so strongly. Sen. Everett S. Sargent of Massachusetts, chairman of the conference of Republican senators, said he feared it would not be until next Tuesday.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he had put through the Senate on Thursday every remaining bill of any importance on which he expected to get action except the last appropriations measure, a clean-up supplemental. But he noted that the three big disputes were yet unresolved.

Both branches operated at a fast clip Thursday. The trade expansion bill, perhaps the most significant measure of the entire Congress, and the drug regulation measure were sent to the White House.

One hitch developed over a technicality in the bill to raise postal rates and federal pay. But it was quickly ironed out and the Senate re-passed the measure. The House plans to complete action on it today.

After three hours of debate the Senate passed an omnibus bill authorizing more than $4 billion for rivers and harbors and flood control projects. It was sent back to the House, which had cleared a much smaller version.

The Senate also passed and returned to the House the highway financing bill for the two years ahead.

It cleared for the President the legislation authorizing a $3 million federal aid program for mass vaccination of children against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

Poll Tax Sales Lagging Some

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Auditor Jimmie Jones said Thursday 13 counties in the state have reported a total of 545 less poll tax receipts this year than last.

The counties, he said, reported receipts of 73,034 payments. The drop is not considered significant at this stage, he said.

Clerks in the state's 75 counties are required by law to report by Oct. 10 the number of valid poll tax receipts in their county. Jones listed receipts, by county, 1962 and 1961 sales, as: Arkansas, 8,158, 7,820; Carroll, 5,668, 4,753; Drew, 4,883, 4,794; Johnson, 5,030, 5,143; Lincoln, 3,966, 3,978; Marion, 2,784, 3,034; Mississippi, 15,857, 18,077; Nevada, 4,175, 4,085; Perry, 2,657, 2,541; Poinsett, 8,558, 8,383; Polk, 4,909, 4,550; Sharp, 3,107, 3,467; Stone, 3,282, 3,052.

Jones said the record poll tax sales for the state occurred in 1960, with 603,795 receipts. There were 575,769 receipts last year.

Space Man Relaxing on Weekend

By RALPH DIGHTON

ABOARD USS KEARSARGE in Pacific (AP)—Relaxing today in ball sessions with five of his six fellow astronauts, Cmdr. Walter M. Schirra said his six-orbit earth-girdle "was a definite step forward in terms of scientific accomplishment."

He did not elaborate, but it was known that the major objective of Schirra's flight Wednesday—(from a Cape Canaveral launching to a near-bulldoze landing 9 hours, 13 minutes and 170,000 miles later near this carrier—was to minimize use of the attitude control fuel supply. This overrode all other scientific objectives.

An 18-orbit, 28-hour mission is proposed for early next year that would push the two-ton Mercury capsule to its maximum endurance, a National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said. This is because of the limit on attitude control fuel capacity. Schirra reduced use of the control fuel by drifting for about half of the flight, said spokesman Ben James. During this time, the Navy commander made no attempt to control and stabilize the capsule's position in relation to the earth.

Schirra described his drifting flight as "a very nice feeling, I felt as if I was on top of a trajectory," he added, using a pilot's term to describe the sensation when a jet plane reaches the top of a climb.

The astronaut reiterated he had "encountered no ill effects at all" for having been weightless and was able to function "as you would on the ground with no limitations."

Five of the six other astronauts were flown aboard the Kearsarge Thursday by carrier plane from Midway. They and Schirra retired to his admiral's cabin to discuss and evaluate his reports.

The astronauts, who arrived with a group of space agency doctors and technicians, are Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., Navy Lt. Cmdr. Malcolm Scott Carpenter, Air Force Maj. Virgil I. Grissom, Air Force Maj. Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. and Air Force Maj. Donald K. (Deke) Slayton.

Schirra told them he had seen the same astronomic phenomena as Glenn and Carpenter on their orbits. These included snowflakes, and a blazing sunset in which the sun appeared flat on the horizon. The capsule already has been lifted by helicopter to Midway, from where it will be flown to Houston, Tex. for detailed study by NASA technicians.

Mrs. J. H. Vess, 60, Dies Today at Spring Hill

Mrs. James H. Vess, aged 60, a resident of Spring Hill, died at her home Friday. She was a member of the Sunset Baptist Church of Dallas and formerly lived at Foreman, Ark.

Survivors include her husband, James H. Vess, two sons, Ralph of Dallas and James Vess of Hope; a daughter, Mrs. Moss Gibson of Dallas; her mother, Mrs. G. E. Scott of Hope; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Beasley of Hope; Mrs. J. E. Tyson and Mrs. A. P. Robertson, both of Texarkana.

Services will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday at New Hope, at Wallace community near Foreman, by the Rev. Carlton Roberts. Burial at Herndon-Cornelius will be in New Hope Cemetery.

TRIP COMPLETED — A helicopter from the Aircraft Carrier Kearsarge hovers near Sigma VII as a whale boat circles the space craft that carried astronaut Wally Schirra on a successful six-orbit trip of the earth and a bullseye landing in the Pacific about 275 miles north-east of Midway Island.

Says X-Rays Can Cause Leukemia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dr. Alice Stewart of the Department of Social Medicine at Oxford University said in a paper submitted to the British Medical Journal in London that leukemia—cancer of the blood—can be caused by medical x rays. She said that about 8 per cent of leukemia cases under review were caused by diagnostic x rays and a further 3 per cent by therapeutic rays.

Ramon Navarro, the onetime movie star, was freed on bail in Los Angeles after serving one day of a 1-day drunken driving sentence. The former idol of the silent screen, now 63, was released in $20 bond and ordered to appear for a federal court hearing on his case Oct. 22. He seeks to have the sentence overturned and turned to the federal courts for a writ of habeas corpus.

Mrs. Kathleen Thorburn, 65, was the chief attraction at the women-of-the-year luncheon at the hotel, attended by nobility, authors and stage stars. Mrs. Thorburn is Britain's No. 1 rat catcher.

"I can hardly say it helps me socially," she confided at the luncheon, a charity affair, "but it's the call of the hunt, you know. My father was a naturalist and I collected rats in childhood. My husband is a retired tea planter and not interested in rats. But my son, Grant, who is 24, has joined me in my work."

"I've been to smart homes where they just won't believe they have them even when I show them 10 rat holes. I do wish the public were more rat-conscious."

TB Germ Is Building Up Resistance

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Delegates to the convention of the Arkansas Tuberculosis Association looked both to their current work and the future Thursday.

Dr. Julius L. Wilson of New York told the Association the tuberculosis germ is building resistance to present drugs and may again become a national menace if better controls are not found.

Dr. Robert Loudon said the Association, as part of an organization heading toward the eradication of its primary concern, it should begin to look elsewhere for the reason for continued existence.

Wilson is medical education director for the National Tuberculosis Association. Loudon is assistant professor in the Department of Internal Medicine at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School in Dallas.

Wilson said even though research has been continued, no new drugs have been developed to aid in the fight against tuberculosis.

More important than new drugs, he said, is early discovery and intensive treatment of the disease. Loudon said the tuberculosis group could easily find other fields in which to work. Chronic respiratory diseases are continually increasing, he said, and the approach to combating them would be "most fruitfully along the lines of a community organization such as the Tuberculosis Association."

Officers of the association are to be elected today. Also meeting with the association are the Arkansas Thiracic Society and the Arkansas Conference of Tuberculosis Workers.

Bang's Vaccination Time Here Again

It is time again to vaccinate heifer calves against Bang's disease said county agent Calvin Caldwell. Brooks Collins, technician for Animal Disease Eradication Division, will do the vaccinating. This vaccination period will begin on October 15 and continue until all requests that have been turned in are filled.

The proper ages for the heifers to be vaccinated against Bang's Disease is from 4 to 8 months. If you have not already turned in your requests please do so immediately.

Golden Age Club to Hold a Fish Fry

The Golden Age Club of Hope, which is a senior citizens group sponsored by Hope Kiwanis club, will hold a fish fry and pot-luck luncheon at 12 noon next Wednesday at the Youth Center.

The occasion will also signal the start of a membership drive with a goal of 100 members. Approximately 60 are on the membership roll at present. There are no membership fees, no age limits.

Mrs. Paul Cobb, secretary of the club, said the organization meets the first and third Thursdays of each month at 2 p. m. Refreshments and entertainment is provided at each meeting. Sewing and designing are some of the projects of the club.

Final Rites for Spring Hill Man

Services for R. S. Bobo, 84, Spring Hill resident who died Thursday, will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Providence Church by the Rev. A. C. Kirby. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius will be in Holly Springs Cemetery.

According to August sales of U. S. Savings Bonds, Hempstead County is only 37 per cent of its $275,000 quota. August purchases amounted to $9,531, bringing the year to $103,206. Howard County had $5,600 in sales, making the year $61,722 or 45.7 per cent of the $135,000 quota. LaFayette county sales were $1,668, the $85,000 quota. Nevada County sales were $87,250, bringing the year's total to $74,950, which is 65.1 per cent of the $115,000 quota.

Jobless Rate Lowest in Two Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Total U.S. unemployment last month was the lowest in two years.

But the rate of joblessness remained at the high August level of 5.8 per cent and total employment declined.

These and other job figures reported Thursday by the Labor Department presented an alternately rosy and dour picture.

On the plus side: The 3,512,000 unemployed in September were 420,000 fewer than the number out of work in August. The September figure was the smallest since September 1960, just before the last recession.

The number of job holders, 68,668,000, topped any previous September.

The ranks of the hard-core unemployed—those without jobs for six months or longer—thinned by 100,000. Their number, a little below 500,000, was the lowest in two years.

On the gloomy side: The flow of an unusually large number of housewives and out-of-school teen-agers to the job market kept the unemployment rate up. Thus the jump from 5.3 per cent in July to 5.8 per cent in August was not so temporary as department officials had expected.

The drop of 1.1 million from August in the number of Americans at work was about one-third larger than usual.

Favorite Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Ookie the spring water, everybody's favorite at the Coney Island Aquarium, has played to her last audience.

Ookie died Thursday of an acute lung infection. Since she was brought to the aquarium in 1952, Ookie fought off a number of respiratory infections and suffered with chronic sinusitis.

Restless Peace Hanging Over Mississippi

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — A restless peace hung over the University of Mississippi today. At the end of a week that started with bloodshed, federal government officials described conditions as "fairly tense."

James H. Meredith, the 29-year-old Negro in the center of the crisis, was due for another day in classes as the furor subsided and planned to leave the campus later for the weekend holiday.

An indication that calm had returned to the 114-year-old university, scene of last Sunday's riots and two killings resulting from Meredith's enrollment, was the reduction of the military force on hand.

Some 3,500 Mississippi National Guardsmen, pressed into service by President Kennedy just before the riots, will be released tonight and another 4,500 got orders to return home.

The weekend was expected to be quiet in Oxford after the Department of Defense ordered the homecoming football game between Ole Miss and Houston switched to Jackson, about 170 miles south. Authorities feared the 30,000 expected fans might have caused new incidents at Oxford.

The Meredith story had other developments Thursday: Meredith used the library and ate in the university cafeteria for the first time. A few eyebrows cocked and there were some indignant hurled when he left, but mostly the incidents were without disorder. A white student sat with Meredith, but did not eat.

The Justice Department said its force of 450 marshals would be reduced by 75 per cent within the next week.

The halls of the Mississippi Legislature echoed with criticism of the Kennedy administration. Rep. Russell Davis joked that U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy would referee the Ole Miss-Houston game and House Speaker Walter Sillers observed that if he did Ole Miss was "beaten before it starts."

The Justice Department disclosed that eight deputy marshals were injured during last Sunday's riots.

All homecoming celebrations were cancelled.

And 300 miles away in Springfield, Mo., Edwin A. Walker, former Army major general, who led some students in the rioting got a court ruling that could lead to his release from a federal prison.

The moving of the football game and its accompanying celebrations, the Defense Department said, was "on the basis of information which indicated it would be unwise for the game to go ahead at Oxford."

Millsaps College, with an enrollment around 1,000, said the transfer of the Mississippi-Houston game would hurt its game with Austin College. Millsaps lodged a protest with the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

In Springfield, Mo., a U.S. district judge ordered the federal government to show cause why Walker, who once commanded American troops in Germany, should not be released on bail.

Walker is charged with inciting insurrection and seditious conspiracy. His bond was set at $100,000 after his arrest in Oxford where he led students in a charge against federal marshals. He was flown to Springfield for medical examination.

Tabernacle to Enlarge Sunday School

The First Assembly of God is entering a Sunday School Enlargement Campaign beginning October 7. The theme for this four-week campaign is found in one word, "Grow."

The objective is to realize growth in each individual's spiritual life as well as growth in number of attendance.

This annual observance is a highlight in the church's program. A special effort is being made by every member to reach new people with the Gospel and a personal invitation to attend church and Sunday School.

Thinks Barnett Within Rights

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., says he disagrees with the actions of Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett but that he thinks Barnett was within his rights.

The conservative spokesman was peppered with questions Thursday by students at the University of Louisville, where he spoke earlier. They asked him his views on the Mississippi integration crisis and Barnett's role in blocking Negro James H. Meredith's admission to the University of Mississippi for a time.

"I am totally opposed to segregation of any sort," Goldwater said, "but I don't believe the Supreme Court finding outlawing school segregation is the supreme law of the land. I disagree with Governor Barnett and think what he has done is distasteful, but I think he has a constitutional right to do it."

Russia Kicks Out U.S. Naval Representative

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today accused Cmdr. Raymond D. Smith, the assistant U.S. naval attaché at the embassy here, of espionage. He was ordered to leave the country immediately.

The Soviet news agency Tass said: "On Oct. 2, competent Soviet organs detained in Leningrad an unknown person who conducted careful observations of a military object."

"The detained person was found today to be the assistant U.S. naval attaché, Raymond Smith. He had with him detailed maps, notes and special apparatus, which prove without doubt that Smith was engaged in spying."

There was no immediate comment from Smith or the embassy. Moscow radio said McSweeney had been told: "The Ministry of Foreign Affairs is lodging a firm protest to the embassy in connection with Smith's spying activities which are incompatible with his status as a diplomat and considers the further stay of Smith in the Soviet Union undesirable."

The U.S. consul said he had rejected the protest as well as the charges that Smith was engaged in espionage, "but as usual in these cases we are complying with the ministry's wishes."

Smith was detained and questioned by Soviet authorities Tuesday while on a trip to Leningrad.

The naval officer, married with three children, arrived in Moscow last June.

Embassy officials said Smith and his family might leave Monday if transportation could be arranged.

Smith, 41, from Brooklyn, N.Y., attended Brooklyn Polytechnical High School, studied at Columbia University and was graduated with an engineering degree from Tufts University, Medford, Mass. He received his Navy commission Oct. 20, 1945, and was promoted to commander in August 1957.

Witnesses to Meeting at El Dorado

The Hope congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses are finalizing their plans to attend a three-day training program in El Dorado, according to Clifford Cook, presiding minister of the local congregation.

The local group will join more than 15 neighboring congregations for this semi-annual meeting.

"The highlight of the program," Cook stated, "is the feature discourse, 'The Bible's Answer to Our Problem of Survival,' to be given at 3 p. m. by J. A. Thompson, Jr., on Sunday."

Mr. Thompson is one of the Watchtower Society's 25 district supervisors in the United States. The program is scheduled for October 12-14 at the Douglas Chapel, 1630 Cook St., El Dorado.

"Regular meetings at our local Kingdom Hall will be suspended during this assembly," Cook concluded.

Hilderbrand, Outlaw of the Hills, Captured

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval F. Faubus announced today that State Police had captured Joe Hilderbrand, the Ozark Mountain outlaw who has been at large since he escaped from the State Hospital Aug. 1, 1961.

Hilderbrand was taken into custody near his home at Dover, Faubus said. Officers had a warrant for his arrest in connection with an assault on a teen-aged girl.

State Police had been watching the house for several days after the girl reported Hilderbrand had attacked her.

Hilderbrand gained national recognition in 1961 when Frances Standridge, 17-year-old niece of his wife, joined him in the Ozark wilderness in a colorful flight from police.

They were captured, and the Standridge girl returned to her home and Hilderbrand was taken to the State Hospital.

State Police in Little Rock said officers were taking Hilderbrand to the state prison farm.

Little was known about the capture, Little Rock officers said, but added that Hilderbrand was not shot.

Hilderbrand, now 26, was sent to the state prison farm for three years in 1958 for kidnapping a tourist couple who had stopped at a scenic point on state Highway 7 about one mile from his home.

Police said he tied them to trees and robbed them.

In November 1959, Hilderbrand was released from prison on a furlough to visit his ailing father. He never returned and police were reluctant to spend the time and effort needed to comb the hills for him.

But on Sept. 5, 1960, Miss Standridge joined the fugitive in the mountains. Police then gave chase. For more than a month the pair roamed the Ozark forests, always one jump ahead of the officers. Some sympathetic hill folk gave them food and hid them.

Finally, on Oct. 14, 1960, they were captured as they approached a mountain cabin at night. Frances was allowed to return to her family but Joe was sent to the State Hospital for a mental examination and found to be with psychosis.

He was confined to the hospital's Little Rock unit and on Aug. 1, 1961, he climbed down a rope of bedsheets and escaped. How he got back to the Ozarks is not known, but he had been seen several times since his escape, several times police went into the brush for him, but Hilderbrand knew the country to well to be taken.

Hours at Hope Youth Center Are Set Up

At a meeting Thursday morning Junior High mothers concluded that only seventh and eighth grade students should be admitted to the Youth Center during Junior High hours, from 6:45 to 8:45 on Saturday nights.

Ninth grade students may attend on Friday nights and with the Senior High group on Saturday nights. Also, Junior High students may not leave the Youth Center once they have been admitted, until 8:45, or until picked up by their parents.

Farm Prices a Bit Higher

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The index of prices received by Arkansas farmers in mid-September was one per cent higher than month earlier and six per cent above mid-September 1961.
Meat, animal, poultry, egg and milk prices advanced during the month, causing a rise of more than three per cent in the livestock price index. The crops index held about steady.
The index is figured by the Agricultural Reporting Service of the Agriculture Department.
Hogs sold at $17.20 per cwt. in mid-September, up 70 cents during the month to the highest level since December 1958.
Beef cattle, at $19.10, increased 30 cents and were the highest since September 1959. Calves, at $23.10, were up 60 cents to the highest level in three years.
Broilers at 15.3 cents per pound in mid-September were the highest in six months.

Can Participate

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Attorney General Frank Holt ruled Wednesday that administrative and other employees of educational institutions as well as teachers are eligible to participate in a new income tax concession. Under the plan, up to 20 per cent of the employee's gross annual salary may be invested in tax-sheltered annuities. Only the proceeds of these annuities are taxable.

Another great step to reduce your cost of car ownership

FORD MOTOR COMPANY
EXTENDS UNIQUE LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers in turn warrant to owners, as follows: that for 24 months or for 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will be made by tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance services, routine replacement of parts, such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades and brake or clutch linings, and normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items. The benefits of the warranty are available to the original purchaser and to subsequent owners of the vehicle during the time and mileage limits prescribed in the warranty.

Here is what it means to you

The new 1963 Ford-built cars and trucks are quality-engineered and manufactured to serve you better and last longer than ever before. The proof is in the warranty ... proof of quality unheard of a few years ago.

In fact, it was only two years ago that Ford Motor Company announced the 12-month, 12,000-mile passenger car warranty which became the industry standard as other manufacturers followed Ford's lead. At the same time, Lincoln Continental became the only American-built car warranted for two full years or 24,000 miles, whichever came first. Now, this warranty applies to all Ford-built cars, regardless of price.
Why is this possible?

Actually, the new warranty is a natural outgrowth of the engineering leadership that has resulted in twice-a-year (or every 6,000-mile) passenger car maintenance. It goes hand-in-glove with such Ford-pioneered service savers as the elimination of the 1,000-mile inspection ... 30,000- to 36,000-mile intervals between major lubrications, 6,000-mile intervals between oil changes and minor lubrications, self-adjusting brakes, aluminized mufflers, and longer-life electrical systems.

These features that save you time and money as you drive are a direct reflection of the total quality achievements of Ford Motor Company.

Spotlight on School Shifts to Carolina

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Now the spotlight on public school desegregation shifts from Mississippi—

unless there's new violence there —to South Carolina and Alabama, the only states left without some integration.

Meanwhile, the backwash from the riots and deaths at the University of Mississippi will be sloshing around in American life and thought a long time, particularly in American politics.

The result in South Carolina and Alabama is just as predictable as it was in Mississippi. They will have to start integrating when their turn comes. South Carolina may have to move first.

Whether the integrating in those states is done peacefully or bloodily depends on the inhabitants and their elected leaders, particularly the governors.

Alabama's Gov. John Patterson, apparently learning nothing from

Gov. Ross R. Barnett's disastrous resistance to the federal government in Mississippi, seems to expect bloody integration.

He has been quoted in the Washington Post as not only saying

"we will resist" but as adding

"there will be chaos, violence and destruction."

The New York Times says

his successor—Governor-elect

George Wallace who takes office in January—is an "even more outspoken racist."

The simple fact, which Barnett and Patterson refuse to face but which makes the action of the federal government both predictable and inevitable, is that since the Supreme Court has banned segregation in public schools, the lower federal courts have to order integration in their districts. This compels the government to back up the courts, with troops if necessary.

If it didn't—if one state could defy the courts and the government to have things its own way

—all states could and the chaos

Patterson talks about would be inescapable, not only in Alabama

but everywhere.

A South Carolina test case moves into federal circuit court today with attorneys for Harvey

B. Gamt, Negro, appealing to get him into Clemson College.

Sen. James O. Eastland, Mississippi Democrat and just as much a segregationist as Barnett and

Patterson, has said his Senate

Judiciary Committee will investigate "events" at Ole Miss after the troops and U.S. marshals arrived.

Since President Kennedy was the one who sent in the marshals and troops, a move some Southerners have denounced, he should be a lively target for their criticism.

Whether this hurts him politically is questionable. Any strength he loses in the South for his action he may pick up in the North.

Her World Has Fallen Apart

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: After 10 years of marriage my world has fallen apart. Up to last winter my husband and I were very much in love. We have three youngsters and all our days were fun. Then he began to change, turned bitter and vicious, started going out alone—heaven only knows where.

He hasn't come near me for months. He admitted being with a woman once or twice but denies any intimacy look place.

I've begged him to tell me what's wrong, but in vain. He switches moods very fast. One day he'll say he wants no part of

SMU Downs Freshmen of Arkansas

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) - Southern Methodist University freshman quarterback Mac White hit Dee Aroff with a 38-yard pass late in the fourth quarter Thursday night to drop the University of Arkansas Shoats 6-0.

The game was the season opener for both teams.

White speared Aroff with the winning aerial with 3:43 to go in the game. The conversion failed. The Colts penetrated into Shoat territory three times but were unable to push over only the one time.

Halfback Jerry Mooty of El Dorado returned the Colts' kickoff after the tally to the Shoat 36. Then quarterback John Brittenum of Brinkley hit end Gene Dumoff of Texarkana with a 41-yard pass to the SMU 23 for the longest single gain of the game.

The Shoats moved to the SMU 12 and tried to imitate the Colts' scoring method but a Brittenum pass was picked off by SMU line-backer Ron Reel at the five.

Reel carried the ball back to the 50 at the time ran out.

The see-saw first half was spent almost entirely between the 20 yard lines.

The Colts made it to the Arkansas 9 early in the fourth quarter after recovering a fumble on the Shoat 23. Shoat guard Jim Youngblood lined his rifle sights on the thundering riders. A slug fell with a plunk in the road. The deputy sighted on a dark horse that stood out against the red dust the charging riders raised. There was little wind; he allowed about two feet bullet drop and squeezed the trigger. The black horse came on. Rifles began to crack from other positions beside the road.

The oncoming riders grew large in their field of vision. The deputy sighted on a big paint that was coming straight and squeezed the trigger again. The paint somersaulted and lunged his rider, spread-eagle, ahead of him.

A slug tore into Youngblood's protective chunk, slamming it aside. He rolled over behind it. Everyone was blasting away now. Powder smoke clung around them in the hot air.

Among the ranchers another rider was picked from the saddle as if by an invisible noose and lay still on the ground. A horse slid to a halt on his back feet, then sank to his knees. A tall rider who had been waving his hot six-gun wildly in the air suddenly clawed leather, but the strength had gone out of him and he fell. He was picked up by another rider. A hundred yards away the attacking wave broke and turned. They still fired as they went back. Their bullets raised spits of dust among the lawmen and possemen.

Youngblood had seen that the leader was Stephen Pendergrass. He tried to find him in his rifle sights, but the retreat was covered by dust. He raised up on his elbow and looked at the four men around him. None of them was hurt. Right behind him the dry goods clerk grunted broadly.

As the dust settled he saw that the ranchers had stopped and were unlimbering their rifles, beginning to fire across saddle seats. He heard the sheriff yell, "Keep your heads down!"

The fire from the ranchers proved ineffective at the range, and the deputy began to look for them to try something else. Then he could tell that an argument had sprung up among them. Their angry voices came faintly across the distance. One cattleman mounted and came toward the roadblock at a lope, with a white handkerchief fluttering from up-hill rifle.

"Hold your fire!" the sheriff yelled. "Keep down!"

The rider was Bledsoe. He drew up at the body of the dead rancher and looked down at it a moment without dismounting, then came on. The sheriff let him ride right up among them before he rose and faced him with drawn 44. "Climb down out of that saddle, Bledsoe."

"I come up here under a flag of truce"

"You're resisting arrest, Bledsoe. This ain't no game we're playing. Now, get down or I'll kill you!"

The heavy man dismounted and the sheriff snapped on handcuffs. The rancher spluttered, aghast at the lack of respect for the flag of truce. The sheriff said, "Andy, take him to town and throw him in that cellar. Here's the key

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Giants were in their usual position of having to battle back today as they faced the New York Yankees in the second game of the World Series, one down following Thursday's 6-2 opening defeat.

Managers Alvin Dark, still confident the Giants will win the Series, pinned his hopes on Jack Sanford, the left-handed pitcher who won 24 of 31 decisions during the regular season. Ralph Houk, the Yankees manager, selected his best right-hander, Halcyon Terry, who topped the American League pitchers with 23 victories. He lost 12.

Satisfied with his team's fine all-around performance in the series opener, Houk planned to use the same line-up that rapped the Giants for 17 hits, including a home run by Cleo Boyer, and brought the Yankees their fourth straight World Series triumph over the Giants. The Yankees won the last three games in 1951, the last time the two teams met.

Dark decided on several changes. He benched Orlando Cepeda, Harvey Kuenn and Ed Bailey, inserting left-handed hitting replacements Willie McCovey at first, Matty Alou in left field and Tom Haller behind the plate.

Bailey is a left-handed hitter, too, but Haller, a former Illinois quarterback, normally catches Sanford. Haller suffered a cut on his right forearm in the second playoff game last Tuesday. "The wound required six stitches,"

"I want to play," said Haller. "The stitches won't matter."

Kuenn and Cepeda failed to get a hit Thursday as Whitey Ford tamed the Giants on 10 hits for his 10th World Series triumph. Cepeda, the National League's leading home run hitter and runs batted in leader in 1961, left four runners on base and hit into a double play to kill off a promising Giant rally.

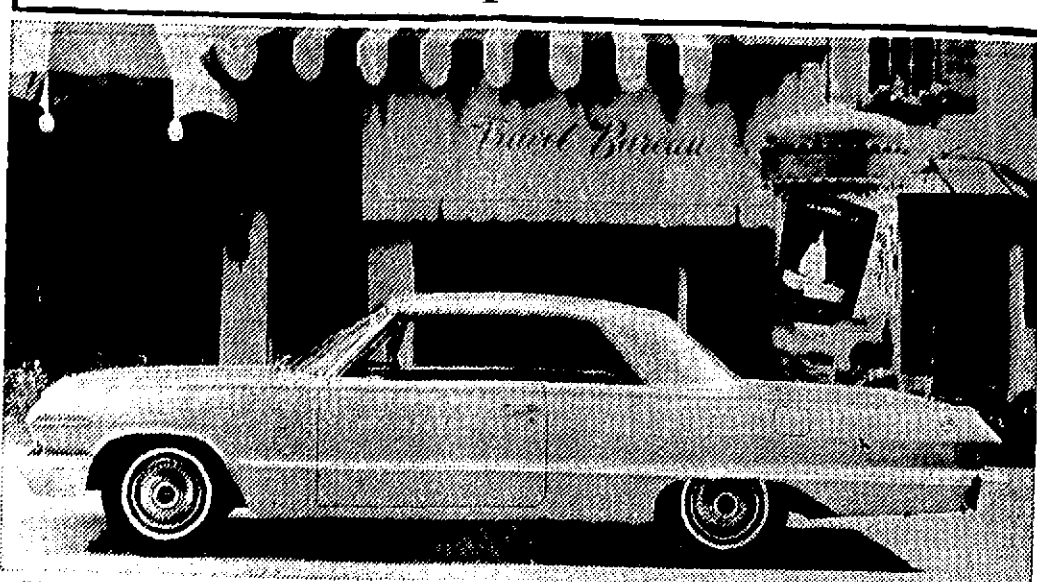

"Orlando is worn out," said Dark. "Including winter ball, he has played 20 games since last season. I'm not in favor of winter ball for fellows who play regularly in the major leagues."

Off to a shaky start, Ford got better as the game progressed. He permitted only two hits after the fifth inning and struck out Mays in the eighth after Willie had cracked three line singles in his first three times at bat, including All-Star games. Mays now has nine hits in 11 times at bat against the brilliant Yankee left-hander.

"If Willie has a weakness, I haven't found it yet," remarked Ford. "But that's nothing to be

Chevrolet's Impala line for 1963

The 1963 Chevrolet look is smart, new and beautifully luxurious, styled with the grace of America's most costly cars. Full-width grille, bumpers, hood, windshield, sculptured side panels and rear deck contours enhance the sleek new look. For added distinction the Impala Sport Coupe is available with an optional vinyl top that further contributes to its convertible look. The new Chevrolet line makes its public appearance in dealer showrooms on September 28.

Whites Edge Reds in a Close One

By Joe Purvis

Thursday at K-Tark the Whites, coached by Gene Davis, edged the Reds 6-0 in a close little league football game that paired a good offense against a good defense.

After a scoreless opening quarter the Reds found themselves blocked in with Ken Koen's punt being blocked on the Red 18. It took the Whites two plays to score. Quarterback Pierce handed off the Jones who was given a perfect block by Rowe and he ended up 17 yards downfield on the one. Brown bruised over and a sweep for the point failed.

Just as looked as if the Red had found an offense to go with their defense, Patterson latched onto an aerial, setting up a White drive. Ray twisted 30 yards upfield to the Red 22 but again the defense rose up to stifle the offense and it was like that during the rest of the game.

Koen and Still were outstanding on defense for the Reds while, Brower, Rowe, Jones and Pierce did well for the winners.

LIVERPOOL, England Jim Ellis, Trenton, N.J., knocked out Dave Coventry, Liverpool, 1 (lightweights).

WORCESTER, Mass. — Sugar Jim Lyn, 149, Newark, N.J., outpointed Gaylord Barnes, 150, New York, 10.

MIAMI, Fla. — Perfecto Garcia, 136, Nicaragua, outpointed Tommy O'Connor, 137½, Pittsburgh, 8.

ashed about. He's only one of the greatest hitters I've ever faced.

"At that," Whitey added, "I have a better record against him in World Series than in All-Star games. I held him to a .750 batting average today (3 for 4). In All-Star games, he's hitting over .800 against me (8 for 7)."

Sanford has never pitched in a World Series. Terry's World Series record is 0-3. He has appeared in four games, three as a starter. It was Terry who threw the home run ball to Bill Mazeroski in the ninth inning of the final 190 series game that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates the world championship.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar periods as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

Arkansas, TCU Highlights Circuit Play

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two championship tests, with the Texas Christian - Arkansas game one of the most important of the season, are mixed with three intercollegiate clashes in which the league strives to pull even as the Southwest Conference football campaign rolls into October.

Saturday's five games are due to roll more than 170,000 into the stadia.

Arkansas hopes to establish itself as a very firm contender for a repeat with the conference title in the battle at Fort Worth where more than 40,000 will be in the stands to watch the versatile Billy Moore duel with Texas Christian's mighty Sonny Gibbs.

Arkansas was picked as a likely champion before the season started and the Razorbacks, in running over Oklahoma State and Tulsa, certainly lived up to their billing.

Texas Christian was considered the dark horse candidate, thinking of the erratic way the Christians played last season. But the Frogs have done exceedingly well, beating well-rated Kansas and barely failing to whip a very good Miami. TCU has played a much stronger schedule than Arkansas and has indicated it can be just as good as the Razorbacks.

The key game along the intercollegiate front comes at Houston where the youthful but solid Rice Owls try to knock over one of the nation's top teams — Penn State. Victory in this one would probably draw the league even for the season in intercollegiate play. It now stands 4-5-1.

In the other two intercollegiate tests, Texas plays Tulane expected to win handily, and Southern Methodist hosts Air Force Academy, which is no better than an even chance of winning the only day

Fishing Around Arkansas Lakes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Here is a fishing forecast from the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission: Lake Maumelle: Water clear and normal. Bass fair to good on artificial bait; crappie fair on minnows fishing late in the afternoon and deep; bream good on crickets and worms.

Lake Conway: Water is clear and normal. Bass and crappie fair to good on minnows; bream fair on crickets and worms.

Lake Hamilton: Water condition good. Bass fairly good on artificial bait; crappie fair on live minnows; bream good on crickets and worms.

Lake Ouchita: No report.

Lake Catherine: Water is clear game on the schedule.

If Texas triumphs and Southern Methodist loses, then it would be up to Rice to topple Penn State and permit the conference to breathe easier over its competition with the outside.

Texas A&M, winless in two games thus far, makes its conference start against Texas Tech at College Station. Tech already knows what it has to face in the championship race—the Red Raiders took a 34-0 blasting from Texas in the first time out last week.

The Aggies are favored by two touchdowns but on the basis of what they have done to date would appear to be slightly overrated.

It was break even on selections this week, making the record 8-5-1 for the season. Which isn't very good.

Here's this week's effort: Arkansas-Texas Christian at Fort Worth, 7:30 p.m. — a mild vote for Arkansas.

Texas A&M-Texas Tech at College Station, 7:30 p.m. — Texas A&M will triumph in a close one.

Texas-Tulane at Austin, 7:30 p.m.—Texas by four touchdowns.

Rice-Penn State at Houston, 8 p.m. — taking the Owls to upset the boys from Pennsylvania although the odds say something else.

Southern Methodist - Air Force Academy at Dallas, 2 p.m. Air Force is stronger, SMU is no better if as good, so it's Air Force in a squeaker.

College Grid Battles Down to Real Thing

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Miami Hurricanes, who on the weekly Associated Press list of the nation's top college football teams, face a major challenge to that high standing tonight in rugged and underrated Florida State.

Coach Andy Gustafson's Hurricanes, who gained the No. 9 spot on the weekly Associated Press ranking of the nation's best, go against a team that is emerging as one of the top defensive clubs in the South.

Their clash, one of three major Friday night games, ushers in a weekend that could be a tough one for the top teams. In addition to Miami, at least four other nationally ranked squads have their work cut out for them.

Those include Penn State (No. 4) at Rice, Georgia Tech (No. 5) vs. Louisiana State in the nation and normal. Bass fair on artificial bait; crappie fair on minnows; bream fair on worms.

Lake Green: No report.

Bull Shoals Lake: Water condition good. White bass and crappie fair at night under lights; black bass fair early and late on top water plugs and live minnows.

Lake Norfolk: White and black bass fair on jigs, eels and plastic worms.

Lake Nimrod: Water clear and below normal. Bass and crappie fair on minnows.

Basketball Season Nears

STEPHENS, Ark. (AP) — A basketball game at Stephens Oct. 16 will kick off the District 7-A West basketball season.

A similar jamboree will be held Oct. 15 at McNeill.

Seven galleries at Audubon State Park at Henderson, Ky., display the works of the famous artist James Audubon.

ally televised game, Mississippi (No. 7) vs. Houston at Jackson, Miss., and Army (No. 10) at Michigan State, all on Saturday.

Miami figures for a struggle between its multiple T offense, built around the passing wizardry of George Mira, and Florida State's unscored upon defense. The Seminoles massacred the Citadel (49-0) and Furman (42-0) and played a solid Kentucky team to a scoreless tie in three outings this season.

Miami has a 2-0 mark and it moved into the top 10 on strength of last week's 21-20 edge over Texas Christian, which featured a contest between two candidates for All America honors at quarterback, Mira and the Horne Frogs' Sonny Gibbs.

Other major games tonight include New Mexico State at Detroit and Furman at George Washington.

The Mississippi-Houston game Saturday was shifted from racially troubled Oxford, Miss., to Jackson on Army orders to prevent further disorders as a result of Negro James Meredith's attendance at Ole Miss.

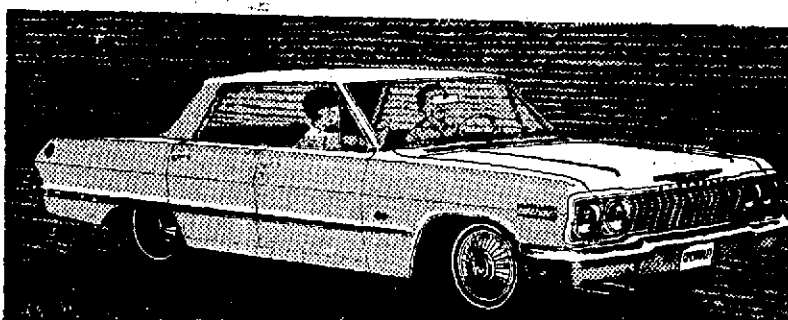

But there were no orders to prevent the trouble Ole Miss can expect from Houston, an unbeaten independent that's anxiously angling for a spot in the big time.

Penn State (2-0) also can expect some rough going from Houston's cross-town neighbor, Rice. The Owls have played only once, a 6-6 tie with tough Louisiana State.

Georgia Tech (2-0) catches a Tiger on the rebound in LSU 1-0-1, as the Baton Rouge boys try to regain a top spot.

Army (2-0) hopes the Paul Dietzel magic and the Cadets' new three-plateau offense will be sufficient to make up for the 38-8 humiliation they suffered at the hands of Michigan (0-1) last year.

Other games involving the top 10 include No. 1 Ohio State (1-0) at UCLA in the opener for the California power; second-ranked Alabama (2-0) vs. Vanderbilt, yet to score in losing two games, at Birmingham; Tulane (0-2) at third-ranked Texas (2-0); Southern California (2-0), No. 6 at Iowa (1-0) and eighth-ranked Washington (2-0) playing host to Kansas State, loser of two and still looking for its first score.
